Japanese Cultural Center of Hawai'i presents

Shippoyaki Workshop

It's back! Come and learn the popular Japanese art form of enameling in a workshop led by award-winning enamel and cloisonné artist, Kazuko Inomata Sensei. Inomata, who is from Osaka, Japan, is a member of the Japan Cloisonné Artists Association and has taught the art form for more than 30 years throughout Japan and in Hawai'i. Students will learn how to make their own one-of-a-kind ornamental pieces—such as pendants, earrings, pill box covers, brooches and purse hangers/ hooks—in which various colors of enamel are used to produce unique designs on a metal base.
